ACTnow's Note

Happy Federal Territory Day to our Kuala Lumpur, Putrajaya and Labuan folks !

ACTnow hopes all of you enjoyed this public holiday yesterday to commemorate the day when Kuala Lumpur was transferred to federal control in 1974.

Besides that, we are slightly over a week away from one of the main festivals in Malaysia, which is Chinese New Year ! ACTnow believes our Chinese community is excitedly getting ready for this celebration. However, as we know, the economy has not been the greatest, and many are affected.

There are families who are just trying to get by, hence ACTnow would like to advise Malaysians to spend prudently and celebrate moderately. If you have excess financially, do consider making contributions or donations to families who are heavily affected by this pandemic. Besides that, do support the local businesses by purchasing your new clothes, decorations, food and so on from them as these are the people who are trying to make ends meet as compared to large corporations.

Apart from that, we shall not forget that our frontliners are still fighting to save Malaysia from this pandemic. Just recently, there are a couple of cases where the doctors or nurses fell ill and even passed away due to fatigue happening because the frontliners have fought the battle for a year without proper rest !

Treated like factory workers due to enormous cases, some doctors may have depressions, and many were not able to see their family for months! Currently tired, exhausted, annoyed and way past the breaking point. Why is the utmost profession of saving lives not being well-supported during this pandemic?

Malaysians ! Please take responsibility in your own hands, reminded repeatedly for over a year, it is as simple as staying home and obey SOP ! If our frontliner breaks down, we all break down, that means Malaysia too, will break down.

Save yourself, your families, friends, and your country.
