ACTnow's Note

Toddlers died in vehicles after being left a few hours due to forgetfulness

March 16, 2021 - Happening in Sungai Petani, a kindergarten principal left the victim in the vehicle in the morning during arrival at the kindergarten until 12.15PM. The 3-year-old boy's parents had prior arrangement with the principal, where on every Tuesday and Wednesday, the latter would provide transport to and from the kindergarten.

However, on 16 March, the principal forgot about the toddler in the morning during arrival and accidentally locked the boy in the vehicle. At 12.15, when the principal wanted to take the boy home, she was notified by one of the teachers that the victim was absent for the class that day which brought her immediate realisation and rushed to the vehicle. Unfortunately, the victim was already unconscious. Despite trying performing cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), the victim was still motionless. After the ambulance arrived and brought the victim to Hospital Sultanah Bahiyah, he was pronounced dead by the doctor on duty.

Similar cases happened in multiple places from 2018 to 2020, where the victim aged between 9-month to 4-year-old. These cases happened due to the forgetfulness of their parents, grandparents, or even guardians. The death causes for the victims are mainly due to excessive heat after being carelessly left in the vehicle for a couple of hours.

ACTnow could not imagine being placed into the children's position being helplessly trapped in the vehicle with striking hot sun and lack of oxygen, and eventually lead to slow but suffering deaths. Hence, ACTnow pleads parents or guardians to be mindful upon leaving the vehicle or set a reminder such as Waze's Child Reminder system to ensure that history does not repeat to your own children.

Issues you should know

ACTnow Hot Issue Facebook live talk show will be back tonight, with more intense tickets to be highlighted! Check out the Hot Issue section below!

Are the deals so good in this morning market, that even Covid-19 infection was ignored?

Taman Midah
Dewan Bandaraya Kuala Lumpur

MY0001751
Endanger Public Safety

Available on:

- Endanger Public Safety
- Taman Midah
- Dewan Bandaraya Kuala Lumpur

Has Covid-19 fully been defeated without ACTnow knowing? How come this morning market in Taman Midah allows close contact without any supervision? This is outrageous, it is certainly not pleasant to know that a Midah cluster might be forming

Double parking is one offence, but how could you also breaks another driver's heart?

Taman Bukit Angsana
Majlis Perbandaran Kajang

MY0001764
Illegal Building Structure Extension

Available on:

- Illegal Building Structure Extension
- Taman Bukit Angsana
- Majlis Perbandaran Kajang

Is this actually legal? The concrete extension taking up parking spaces for personal use may not be legally correct as any extension requires permission. That being said, is this extension legal? ACTnow hopes authorities will investigate this matter.

Parents and students ignoring SOP outside of a primary school!

Bandar Damai Perdana
Majlis Perbandaran Kajang

MY0001798
Public Interests

Available on:

- Public Interests
- Bandar Damai Perdana
- Majlis Perbandaran Kajang

Once again we witness a potential cluster as this school has no control over parents and students gathering outside the gate before and after school. Happening in Bandar Damai Perdana, MPKJ should take stern action on these issues
