"The prime objective of this charity art auction event is not only to raise funds but also to encourage others, including corporates, private individuals, and NGOs, to contribute towards the relief efforts when a natural disaster occurred " said the spokesperson for ACTnow. "We hope that through this event, we can inspire more people to make a positive impact in times of need."

ACTnow is a community-driven mobile application platform that connects individuals and organisations to various community-driven initiatives and projects. The platform aims to create positive social impact and promote community engagement and volunteerism.

"We are honoured to be able to contribute towards the relief efforts for the earthquake victims in Syria. We believe that every little bit counts, and we hope that this event will help to make a difference in the lives of those affected," added the spokesperson.
